

THE MARIPOSA  CENTER
FOR INFANT, CHILD & FAMILY ENRICHMENT

Infant and Early Childhood Trauma:
Spotlight on Families, Systems, and Reflective Practice

Saturday March 9th, 9-5 & Sunday March 10th, 9-5

4704 Harlan Street, Suite 200
Denver, CO 80212

Join us for a weekend of professional education and support as we discuss trauma-informed care for the youngest population!

Covered topics include:
Early childhood brain development
Attachment

The impact of trauma on the young child, families, and systems
Reflective practice as a tool for provider self-care

Creative strategies for working with trauma based on our Neuro-Relational Creative Arts Therapy Model
And more!

Who Should Attend?

- Students in Psychology, Social Work, Early Childhood Education, and related fields
- Early Interventionists
- Case Workers and Service Coordinators
- Practicing Counselors, OTs, PTs, SLPs, Teachers
- Home Visitors (PAT, HIPPI, NFP)
- Dance/Movement Therapists, Art Therapists, Play Therapists
- Professionals Seeking Endorsement in Infant Mental Health

Certificates of attendance available.

The workshop is led by Jennifer Platt, LPC, R-DMT and Emily McNeil, LPC, BC-DMT, IMH-E (clinical mentor). Both specialize in working with traumatized children and families, children in foster and adoptive situations, and children with developmental and medical challenges. Jennifer and Emily also consult frequently with other professionals and organizations on the topics of early childhood trauma, child development, and secondary trauma.

Cost of the class with materials is $250 for professionals, $125 for students (spaces are limited).

For more information and to register, please contact: 720-288-5090;
info@mariposacenterdenver.com OR visit www.mariposacenterdenver.com. Click on Groups Tab.
Look for the Infant and Early Childhood Trauma Class!